Two Added To Staff

Two new members have been added to the Panther Sentinel staff this semester. The two new staff members are Napoleon Augustine and David Alsop.

They are replacing Dale Swire and Gerry Sweet who are not on the Panther Sentinel staff this semester. Swire is on active duty with the naval reserves and Miss Sweet has quit school to work in Santa Cruz.

Scribes Needed

Anyone with a flair for writing is invited to work on the Panther Sentinel staff. Either news or feature writers are welcomed. The staff meets Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Lloyd's of London Offer Accident Insurance At Reduced Rate; Plan Covers All School Activities

Coverage up to $500 for only $1.05 premium is the accident insurance plan, in brief, offered to the Hartnell College students last Friday by Lloyd's of London. A.S.B. President George Jackson announced that policies would be on sale in front of the main office until 4 o'clock today, and that 50 per cent of the student body, and all athletes must participate in order for the policy to be accepted.

Bob Day Elected Prexy of Sophs; Replaces Lew

Bob Day was elected sophomore representative to the students commission during that governing body's meeting early this week. The ASB leaders chose him over two other nominees to replace John Lew, who has dropped out of Hartnell this semester.

The new representative was chosen on the basis of his grades, former experience in governing activities, and interest shown. Day played end on the college football squad, and cited CSF and school yearbook as two of his high school activities. He defeated Dick Johnson and Lutz Graf zu Muenster for the job of representing his fellow sophomores as a commissioner.

$603 Yearly Spent By Typical Student

Hartnell College students spend an average of $603.00 in the Salinas-Alisal area each year, according to a questionnaire recently filled out by 200 students. The highest item on the questionnaire list was groceries. Students purchase an average of $104.20 worth of groceries in the Salinas-Alisal area each year.

Items on the questionnaire include rent, $60.10; groceries $104.20; restaurants and creameries, including the Hartnell cafeteria, $75.72; automobile supplies, not including gasoline, $36.69; gasoline, $63.78; soft drinks, from machines, $5.37; books and stationery, $28.76; typewriter supplies and rental, $3.91; movies and entertainment, $45.91; clothing, excluding shoes, $80.97; shoes and repairs, $20.83; sports equipment and clothing $12.38; jewelry, $11.98; hardware, $13.00; insurance, $28.69; and radios and electrical appliances, $11.20.

The figures are based upon a survey of a representative cross section of the Hartnell students body.

Commission Threatens Gamblers

Closing of the student lounge is again under consideration by the ASB commission. Repeated reports and observations of gambling in the lounge have forced the commission to discuss and prepare to take such action.

During this past week notices have appeared in the bulletin, and commissioners have informed participants of the existing condition. If gambling has not ceased entirely by such time as will satisfy the commission members, action will be taken next Monday to decide whether or not to close the lounge.

In any case, students are urged by the commission not to abuse their privileges in the lounge, whether during this probationary week or not.

College Rings Now On Sale

Hartnell College rings are now on sale to any student who wishes to purchase one. The prices range from $17.55 to $22.75. These prices include federal and state taxes. The rings may be bought from George Jackson or any other commission member. A $3.00 deposit is required.

Enrollment Figures

An increase of 20 students over last semester has been seen at Hartnell College. The enrollment this semester is 577 compared to 557 during the first semester.

Men have an edge over women students this semester with 348 men and 229 women registered. There are 296 freshmen students, 187 sophomores and 94 special students.

Marines Offer Commissions

Student draft deferments are now available through the Marine Corps reserve for high school graduates intending to complete a full four year course in college. This opportunity, with no classes or drills in military training during the school year, is open to all college students above 17 who will complete the fourth year before reaching 25.

All military training is accomplished in two consecutive six-week summer camps. The main purpose of this is to establish a backlog of educated officer material for the Marine corps and, although you have no uniform to wear, except at camp, you automatically receive a commission as Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps reserve. In order to be deferred from SSS induction, applicant for the Platoon leaders class must agree in writing, at the time of enrollment, to accept a commission, if tendered, and to serve not less than two years on active duty if ordered by the Secretary of the Navy; and to remain a member of a regular or reserve component until the eighth anniversary of the receipt of a commission.

There is no plan to call this group into active duty, but you must pass the rigid physical examination for enrollment before you have received the physical exam notice from your local draft board. You must be able to meet the same physical standards as for entrance into the United States Naval Academy.

If you believe you can meet all requirements necessary for enrollment in the PLC, you can write for an application blank as follows: Office Procurement Officer, USMC, Room 32, Federal Office Building, Fulton and Market Streets, San Francisco, California. One of the outstanding requirements is that the person must have normal 20/20 uncorrected vision in each eye. Anyone under 18 is required to obtain the written approval of his parents.

Karl D. Morrison, First Lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps, Officer Procurement Officer, will be at Hartnell on February 19 to confer with college President John B. Lemos.

CAMPUSOLOGY

Old Man English jest keeps on rollin' along; but only till the end of this year. Tuesday was the day for Mr. John Murrin to shed tears, for this was the day on which he reached the California teachers' retirement age (he's past 40, anyhow). In short, the conclusion of this current semester will mark the conclusion of Mr. Murrin's career as a faculty fixture at our beloved institution.

During his more than 15 years at Hartnell he has served in the capacity of advisor to La Reata and the college newspaper (then called The Battery) as well as instructing English classes. During the faculty meeting of Tuesday his cohorts presented him with a new pipe—someone mentioned that it was so he could retire in a puff of glory.

P.S.: He liked the pipe and the idea, both.

Blood on my hands: If you're afraid to give blood, and Ken Van Cleave says you shouldn't be, console yourself! We are informed that there is a doctor on hand at all times with scalpel and stitches for any kind of mishap. All that happens is that a small vacuum cleaner hose is inserted into the big vein in your arm and zingo! You now have a pint of canned tomato juice colored blood. If you come out of the coma before your arm recovers you can always use the other arm for a month or two. But be careful, because they use a lousy quality band-aid for your pin prick!

While we're on the subject of blood donations, it might do some leery students good to listen to "Report on Hartnell" this afternoon at 4:15. Dr. George Hinn, who will be in charge of attending M.D.'s next Monday, is the guest of Raoul Rauhland on the interview section of the show. New editions to the show are Myrtle Rose Craig, Gladys Fagundes, Van Cleave, and Grover Grant.

BEST SELLERS: Most popular book on campus the past week has been "Bar Guide," with the text by Ted Shane and cartoons by VIP. This book has had little influence in increasing student knowledge of alcoholic mixtures, as all agree that all roads lead to the Shalimar. (How revolting!)

DIRTY ITEMS: 'Tis said that one Mervyn Ferreira was quite a boy after the Stanford-Santa Clara football game—deletion is the better part of libel from here on.

DRAMATICAL ERRORS: Heard while passing Room 29: "It is the East, and Juliet is my son." On bulletin board in the drama office is a list of actors' rules which includes the statement, "Thou shalt have no God except Thespis and Ulrici—!"

War Experiences Told

By DICK JOHNSON

From devastation and despair to freedom and opportunity is the path which two Hartnell College students from the Philippine Islands have traveled in the past ten years. The students, Juanito B. Arreola, Jr., and Rosalino Q. Quemma, can tell of many fascinating and horrible events which they have experienced along this path through the horrors of war and the beauty of peace following war.

Both began life on the largest of the Philippine Islands, Luzon, although they lived in separate provinces, Arreola having lived in San Fernando, the capital of the province, La Union, and Quemma in the province of Ilocos Sur. Until the invasion of the Japanese forces they led comparatively normal lives.

This invasion by the Japanese was described by both as having had the aspect of the end of life to all the people—and for many it was. Quemma related one ordeal in which all the women and children had to march in the woods for six days and five nights to escape the oncoming horde. During this time they had little food, no rest and no drinking water. Any water that could be found was in stagnant pools, but it had to suffice. Many died during this flight.

To see killing and destruction, said Arreola, became a common thing where he was. When asked if he could describe the suffering during this period he could only shake his head and repeat, "Terrible, terrible." He related that after the Japanese had gained complete possession of the islands they destroyed all books and evidences of the teachings which Americans had brought there since 1900.

During the four years of occupation by the "hostile Japs," as they described them, life was not too bad, and they did have schooling—all in the Japanese language and concerning Japanese culture. Then it began again. This time the American forces were the attackers. Despite the joy of the people in seeing the Americans force their way back the period of the battle for regaining the Philippines was another nightmare for the war-torn Filipinos.

Now there is peace on the island of Luzon. Marks of the war still remain, but the faces of the people smile now. Their young citizens, such as the two I write of, can experience the thrill of living and studying in what they feelingly describe as truly being a great and wonderful land of opportunity.

Graduation Applications Due In Main Office Now

Students who plan to graduate this coming June 6, 1952, must file an application for graduation at the main office. Deadline for filing applications will not be later than today, February 1, 1952.

This application blank will go to the deans of different divisions to be checked for the course requirements. Dr. Hall will check course requirements for the General College Division, Mr. Addison for the Occupational Division and Mr. Cassidy for the Lower Division.

Mr. Girdner, the Registrar, will also check the application for graduation to determine the grade point average.

Sixty units are required for one to graduate. A 1.00 (C average) will entitle one to receive the A.A. degree. Those with a lower average will receive a diploma.

Religious Group Elects Officers

Hartnell's religious Christian Fellowship Club held an election of officers for the new term on Wednesday, January 30, 1952, according to Mr. Bullis, the club advisor. Since no officer of the club is eligible to hold the same office twice, a new slate of candidates was elected.

Past officers of the club are: President, Lloyd Hagquist; vice-president, Frank Bates; secretary, Elizabeth Ernst; Interclub council representative, Edna Rasmussen.

To interest students in attending the club meetings, Mr. Bullis is inviting prominent church leaders to speak before the group. The first of these was Rev. Dodson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Salinas.

Group discussion pertaining to religious needs of the students are also included in the Club's agenda. For the January meeting the club continued their Bible study.

"Look Out Below!" Thus read the caption above the following dissertation which was contributed to our office by a prominent gentleman, who was instrumental in naming the college newspaper "The Battery" way back when!

SMART FACULTY, or TOO MUCH SHAKESPEARE

Murkin: (Regarding men working in the parking lot) "When those men roll those buffer-logs into place, they'll need canthooks. Do you suppose the Peavy family would help?"

Bengston: "You can't hook the Peavys into a job like that."

Murkin: "Are you afraid that, like Capt. Carlsen, they'd lose their logs?"

Swanson: "He was water-logged."

Tests At Fort Ord

Hartnell College students from the business department recently made a trip to Fort Ord to participate in a Federal Civil Service Typist and Stenography examination. Candidates who pass either the typing or shorthand tests will have an opportunity to compete within a year's time for fine positions as typists or stenographers in various army offices at Fort Ord, office work for the Navy School at Del Monte, Presidio of Monterey, the Army Language School at Monterey, and other federal agencies located in the Salinas-Monterey and Watsonville areas.

Students taking the tests were: Marjorie Conine, Margebelle Boyney, Helen Lapineg, Dolores Sanchez, Mrs. Edith Jensen, Geraldine Anderson, Barbara Dunn, Anna Mariano, Valerie Thompson, Maybelle Boyney, Rosemarie Toshikian and Carolyn Charlson.

Forms In Office For Club Events

Scheduling of college events must now be done by means of calendar reservation forms which may be procured and turned in at the main office, announced the president of the Interclub Council, Freda Ledford, this week. The reservation forms will be collected and placed on the master calendar daily.

If any conflicts arise in the scheduling of different club events they will be taken care of much more quickly than they have been previously. In any case, the first organization to request a date will be granted the request, and any other group requesting the same date will be informed and given opportunity to choose an open date immediately.

The forms include space for the date of the request, name of the organization, type of event, date, time and place of event, and approval signature of an officer of the Interclub Council.

Alumnus In Navy

Former student John Wong was recently granted indefinite leave of absence by the Salinas City Council. The leave became effective as of yesterday. Having served in the city public works department as a draftsman since May of last year, Wong has been called to active duty in the Navy.

During World War II he served with the merchant marine in Asia, the Philippines, and in South America.

Harts Take Marin, Gain First Place

Hoop Highlights

By TOM WELCH

After last night's game with the Castle Air Force Base team, (the results are as yet unknown to me) the varsity cage group will head for an afternoon contest with the Stanford reserves. The Stanford squad is enjoying a successful season and should be very reluctant to accept a defeat. "Big gun" for the Stanfords is, former Salinas Hi star, Russ Lawler. Russ occupies six feet six inches of the center spot. There is no game scheduled for tomorrow night.

Next week end on the 8th and 9th, the Hartnells will play two games on the road. First, facing a return bout with Castle Air Base and then a league contest with East Contra Costa. Our varsity has not fared too well in return games so far this season but it is not too late to break that return game jinx.

Bob Ballard

The picture of Bob Ballard is the first of a series of "mugs" to introduce our cagers. Bob hails from Morro Bay and is a graduate of Avenal Hi. Nineteen year old Bob, was a top scoring guard on last year's team, but has graduated to the center position. His top scoring effort this season was worth 25 points and his passing is highly valued. Bob was elected to captain the squad for the entire 51-52 season. Ballard has definite intentions of continuing his art major, but as yet is undecided in which institution he will enroll.

Marin opened the third quarter

Menlo and Marin Lose To Panthers

The Hartnell varsity cagers have more than proved themselves to be a title threat by winning two conference tilts. They are already standing alone in the first place spot.

In their first conference outing the Hartnells downed the Menlo Oaks to the melody of 49-45. Both teams seemed to have concentrated on defensive efforts thus, the scoring of each squad was lessened.

It was the scoring of Captain Bob Ballard that brought victory to the Harts. Bob gave the Menlo squad a 25-point headache by constantly out-foxing Crane, the Oaks 6-foot 7-inch center.

All went well for the Panthers in the first quarter, and it looked like it was going to be a soft touch for the Salinas cagers, who held a 14-7 advantage.

As in many other games this season, everything seemed to go wrong for the Harts in the second frame. Menlo man Hansen proved himself dangerous by connecting frequently with his drive-in shots.

Led by Hansen, Menlo overtook the Hartnells and owned a 23-22 lead at the mid-way mark.

Menlo again dominated the court in the third quarter and increased their lead to 39-36 by the time this period ended.

It was then that the Panther defense and offense began to click. Ballard's hook-shots were very effective and with five minutes remaining, the score was all tied up. Field goals by Maguire, Welch, and Adams put the Harts ahead by 49-45 and that registered Hartnell's first conference victory some 40 seconds later.

Panthers Drop Marin in Overtime

Living up to all expectations, this was one of the most exciting games ever played in the Hartnell gym.

Although the victory was obtained through the efforts of all the Panthers, too much credit cannot be given to small George Chin. George "jet" Chin proved himself to be the most clever defensive man on the Hartnell roster.

This contest began slow with both teams attempting to control the ball, when the quarter ended Marin held a 17-13 edge.

The second period was much like the first, but Marin ace, Glen Robinson had committed 4 fouls when half-time arrived. The Harts returned from their rest period on the short end of a 28-26 count.

Marin opened the third quarter

by hitting four consecutive buckets which seemed to smother the spirit of the Hartnell five. George Chin and Jim Ledgerwood entered the encounter with the Panthers trailing 40-29. Chin immediately started to press the visitors, stealing the ball five times from the team that had been used to a slow defense. Chin's efforts began to show up on the scoreboard now and the score was knotted at 52-52 with thirty seconds remaining. Time ran out before either club could score and a five minute extra period began.

Robinson committed his fifth foul seconds after this "scrapping" period began, as did Bob Ballard and both finished the game as spectators. In this overtime Ballard hooked one and Jim Ledgerwood accounted for another plus a charity toss. Hard fighting Marin bounced back with two fieldgoals. Bob Swan then fired a set shot that was good for two and Adams came through with a lay-in. Dalton of the visitors dropped in a free toss and that ended all the scoring, with Hartnell on top by 61-57 total.

These two teams will meet once more before this season ends. The next contest could not be more thrilling than the first.

Tops in the Panther scoring department was shared by Bob Adams and Ballard, both connecting for 13 digits.

State Cagers Get Revenge

The San Jose State reserves were defeated by the Hart cagers 54-53, but in a return match, held at Hartnell, the young Spartans managed to swing an impressive 57-47 victory.

In the first meeting, the sharp shooting of forward Bob Steinbach plus the ball handling of Bob Ballard gave the Panthers an 11-5 first quarter advantage. The second portion showed that Bob Adams and Bob Swan could also pierce the hoop, so our home quintet led 24-23 when the buzzer sounded for the half.

The "Staters" tightened things up in this next period. The fourth and final portion of this contest began with the Salinas five on the bottom of a 40-39 score. Once again the forward and center Bobs began a scoring spree that was just too much for the State reserves to handle. The game ended with both clubs trying desperately to control the highly valued ball and a 54-53 Hartnell victory.

The scoring honors were very evenly distributed between Steinbach with 15 and Ballard and Adams garnering a 13 point total.

Two weeks later the revenge seeking San Jose five traveled to

Baseball Stars Receive Honors

At the last Conference meeting Arleigh Williams was requested to poll the baseball Coaches regarding an All-Conference team. He has recently announced the following as the All Coast Conference baseball team for 1951.

Catcher—Arin, Marin.

Pitchers—McGovern, Menlo and Navaroli, Hartnell.

First—Brooks, Monterey.

Second—Clark, Menlo.

Short—Schilling, Marin.

Third—Bagnasco, East Contra Costa.

Outfield—Van den Heuval, Menlo; Croad, East Contra Costa; Steinbach, Hartnell.

Salinas to again face the Harts, who were now proud of a five game winning streak.

The first half was an even affair, except the rebounding of the Panthers was superior to that of the "Staters". The 14 point scoring effort of guard Tom Welch entitled the home five to hold a 30-25 midway edge.

It was during the third period that the Spartan reserves came from behind with 17 points, while the Panthers only were able to produce four. The last ten minutes saw the Hartnells come within 5 points of their high spirited opponents but, they didn't have enough and the young Spartans strengthened the score for the 57-47 victory.

State Man Bud Hjelm topped scoring honors with 15, but was closely followed by Welch's 14. Chin and Maguire played well in this contest.
